Regionalism and the M.O.R.E. Commission Significant Changes for Darien?

Tuesday, June 3rd, 7:00 – 8:30 PM
Darien Library Auditorium, 1441 Post Road
Free and Open to the Public
Panel Discussion by MORE Commission Members including Q&A

Under new legislation, Connecticut is moving from 15 regional planning entities to 5 Councils of Government (COGs)

The State Municipal Opportunities and Regional Efficiencies (MORE) Commission's goal is to recommend cost efficiencies through regional Council of Governments(COG) cooperation.

MORE working groups include:

- Municipal Tax Authority
- Board of Education Functions
- Regional Entities
- Mandates
- Special Education

Come hear from MORE Commission panel members and learn how regionalism could impact Darien.

Rep Tim Larson (11th District-D), Commission Chair
Rep Christopher Davis (57th District-R), Ranking Minority Member
Rep Jason Rojas (9th District-D), Regional Entities Working Group Member

Moderated by Kay Maxwell: Executive Director - World Affairs Forum, Former National President – League of Women Voters
