

Agenda for Monuments and Ceremonies Commission Meeting

March 13, 2012

- 1. Craig Schorr and wife, Sueann invited to be Memorial Day Speakers
- 2. John Geoghegan invited to serve as Grand Marshal
- 3. Patriot Brass Ensemble Band tentatively engaged and paid for by Masons
Perhaps a local business could help to underwrite this expense estimated at $2,500
- 4. Portable reviewing stand will cost $2,500-$3,000. Senior Men mentioned underwriting some of this cost in honor of Phil Morehouse, former chairman of the M&C Commission and a member of Senior Men's Group
- 5. Discuss Senior Men cars and how they should be positioned in Parade
- 6. SOS Group from DHS contacted to help with Parade on Memorial Day
- 7. Flyover has been requested
- 8. April 10, meeting with Police Dept representative scheduled to go over Parade requirements
- 9. Many invited parties have not responded to Parade invitation and will be contacted again
- 10. Tokeneke Plaque from 2012 Tokeneke Bridge needs to be placed during the 2012 year which marks 100 years
- 11. Fitch Home plaques and memorial tree from Gettysburg need to be safeguarded during Darien Housing Authority construction
- 12. Wreaths removed from Veteran's Cemetery by Cub Scout Pack